Leslie Davidson has counseling appointments available for anyone who is needing spiritual counseling. Appointments are available on Tuesdays & Thursdays between 9-5. Please call the Friends For Hope office at 325-884-2281 if you would like more information or to schedule an appointment.

A candlelight vigil was held on October 27 on the courthouse lawn. At last count, there were about 115 people that attended. Youth from several different churches, as well as many adults from the community came out to show support for the victims of domestic violence. Friends For Hope would like to thank all of those who came to the vigil and those that helped plan and put on the event.

STAR News.....

The STAR (Students Taking Action for Respect) group has started meeting again. This group is open to kids 7th-12th grade. They work on programs dealing with teen dating violence, drug and alcohol abuse, and bullying just to name a few. If your child is interested in joining the STAR program, please contact the Friends For Hope office at 325-884-9804 / 325-884-2281 for the next meeting time and location.
